

"From the Inside Out" Historic Clothing Workshop

Federal Period Everyday Dress Patterns

with Joyce McDonald, historic costume seamstress

Saturday, February 18th, 2012

10:00 am - 3:00 pm

Breckinridge Education Center, Jefferson Patterson Park & Museum

Fee: $10 ($8 for members of the Guild and Friends of JPPM)

Do you need a dress to wear during the Bicentennial of the War of 1812?

Joyce McDonald, historic costume seamstress, will show how to create a period dress pattern based on her research using early 19th century garments.

Participants will also learn how to cut a short gown and skirt appropriate for working class wardrobes. Workshop fee includes pattern muslin and instruction. For information and to register call 410-586-8501 or 8538.
